THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION No.16494 of 2005

O R D E R:

On the ground that the petitioner's order of suspension dated 15.03.2005 was suspended by this Court in W.P.No.5647 of 2005, dated 08.04.2005, the present writ petition is filed seeking a direction that the petitioner be permitted to supply kerosene oil to the cardholders.

This Court, by order dated 08.04.2005, passed the following order:

> "Recording the above submission and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, this writ petition is also disposed of with the same observations and directions that the petitioner is at liberty to approach the appellate authority within a period of two weeks from today and upon such appeal along with any interim application being filed, the appellate authority shall dispose of the same, within a period of four weeks thereafter positively and till any such orders are passed on the interim application, the impugned order shall stand suspended. No costs."

It is clear therefrom that while the petitioner was directed to file an appeal within a period of two weeks before the appellate authority along with a stay application and the appellate authority was directed to dispose of the same within a period of four weeks thereafter, the order of suspension dated 15.03.2005 was suspended till the appellate authority disposed of either the stay application or the appeal itself.

Learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies submits that the stay application filed by the petitioner was dismissed on 21.05.2005.

In view of the said order passed by the appellate authority, the order passed by this Court in W.P.No.5647 of 2005, dated 08.04.2005, has worked itself out and if the petitioner has any grievance, it is for him to take necessary steps to challenge the order of the appellate authority rejecting his stay application.

The writ petition is wholly misconceived and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
